I	tem 2: Dog Park Upgrade to Artificial Turf
ir co is	Agency Vice Chair Serviss expressed thanks to Agency Chair Kelley for posting information on social media and thanked Alex Garrao with Outdoor Living Pros for omments answering residents' questions. Drainage was a big topic on Facebook, so Alex is present to answer any questions. She also mentioned the revised estimate was presented in the C.R. All and has been made available.

48	Scott Gerken disclosed, Agency Vice Chair Serviss dutifully contacted his office
49	informing him that two of these companies are clients of her employer to insure there is no
50	conflict. There is no conflict and Agency Vice Chair Serviss is able and required to vote on
51	this item.
52
53	Agency Vice Chair Serviss stated the quote received from Outdoor Living Pros provided
54	a higher square footage than Artificial Grass company. This is the reason a revised quote
55	was presented.
56
57	MOTION by Agency Vice Chair Serviss, SECONDED by Agency Member Price, to
58	approve Outdoor Living Pros to be used as our artificial turf provider.
59
60	Agency Members discussed resident's remarks about the dog park, keeping the park clean,
61	lighting needs, what's the best use of this amount of money, comparison of employee time
62	for upkeep, affordability verses value added, and usability.
63
64	Nathan Focht, Lake County resident, spoke regarding the project and suggested starting
65	with smaller park first.
66
67	Agency Members discussed this option, but the large dog park is used far more than the
68	small dog area.
